

Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Attending Opportunity

Baystate Health, western Massachusetts' premier healthcare provider and home to the University of Massachusetts Chan Medical School – Baystate, is seeking an EMS physician to join our organization.

Position Highlights –

- Join our team of 3 progressive EMS physicians who provide oversight of EMS at our 4 hospitals across western MA. Baystate Medical Center, the region's only level I Trauma and tertiary care referral center, serves over 120,000 annual ED visits and 40,000 EMS arrivals annually. Our 4 Eds, including those at our 3 regional hospitals, serve a combined volume of over 200,000 annual visits.
- Assist with the oversight and delivery of a variety of services to urban, rural, municipal, volunteer, private and fire department-based agencies, including an EMS physician vehicle program and CAMTS-accredited ground critical care transport services.
- Combination of clinical care and teaching of an EMS fellow, residents, and medical students with a faculty appointment at University of Massachusetts Chan Medical School- Baystate. Our new ACGME approved EMS fellowship begins in July 2023 with one EMS fellow.
- Enjoy an academically rich and progressive community where you will have strong leadership support to innovate and develop your career as an educator and leader within the organization and beyond.
- We are committed to the wellness of our physicians and are pleased to offer excellent benefits, ongoing mentoring and support of your professional development goals, and opportunities to flex FTE to fit your lifestyle.

YOU BELONG AT BAYSTATE. At Baystate Health we know that treating one another with dignity and equity is what elevates respect for our patients and staff. As a Baystate leader, we look to your insights in helping us increase diverse representation among leadership, providers, and all roles across our organization through changes in policies, procedures, and practices to build equity across the organization.

Qualifications: ABMS BE/BC in Emergency Medicine and Emergency Medicine Services. Strong commitment to collaboration, courage, quality, and lifelong learning is essential.
