

BRIGHAM AND WOMEN'S HOSPITAL
ATTENDING EMERGENCY MEDICINE PHYSICIANS: MOONLIGHTERS

The Department of Emergency Medicine at Brigham and Women's Hospital is seeking emergency medicine physicians to provide part-time clinical care or "moonlighting" in two emergency departments: Brigham and Women's Hospital (BWH) and Brigham and Women's Faulkner Hospital (BWFH). BWH is a 760-bed academic hospital level 1 trauma and burn referral center that offers the full spectrum of medical and surgical specialties. BWFH is a 150-bed community teaching hospital in Jamaica Plain. This position may also provide clinical care at BWH's Urgent Care Center in Foxborough Massachusetts (Patriot Place).

Successful candidates will have successfully completed specialty training in emergency medicine and be either board-eligible or certified in Emergency Medicine and hold an active MA medical license. Ideally, candidates should be able to easily transition between a teaching hospital and a community practice.

This position is for 18 hours per month (two, 9-hour shifts) for a 12-month period. Compensation rate is competitive with other MassGeneral Brigham Hospitals.

Interested candidates should send a letter and Curriculum Vitae to Michael VanRooyen, MD, MPH, Professor and Chair, Department of Emergency Medicine, Brigham and Women's Hospital. Please apply by confidential email to mdeloge@bwh.harvard.edu.
